FOUND TRAGIC NEWS IN PORT.

ENGLISH GIRL, HERE TO WED, LEARNS OF LOVER'S DEATH.

It Was to Have Been a Christmas Marriage, but the Young Man Was Killed in the Dawson Wreck as He Sped to Meet His Sweetheart at Her Voyage's End.

Miss Lillian Bennett, a pretty little English woman, came into New York harbor yesterday morning on the steamship Cedric, expecting to be met at the pier by her fiance, Ambrose Good of McKeesport, Pa., According to the plans that had been made, she and Good were to have been married as soon as she could leave the ship. · Before she reached the pier the news had been broken to her that her sweetheart had been killed on Wednesday night in the wreck of the Duquesne limited, while on his way to meet her. The shock made her hysterical and doctors were giving her medicine to quiet her when most of the passengers on the ship were greeting friends who had met them as soon as the gang-planks were let down.

Miss Bennett is 23 years old, the same age as the young man to whom she was to have been married yesterday. She and Good were children together in Wednesbury, Staffordshire, England.

For two years it had been understood that they were to be married on Christmas of this year. The original plan was to have the ceremony take place in England, but a year ago Good came to this country, and went to McKeesport, where two of his brothers are employed in the iron works.

Ambrose got a good job there and decided to stay, so he saved money and, with the help of his two brothers, built and furnished a cottage near theirs. Then he sent passage money to bring Miss Bennett from England. Miss Bennett decided that rather than wait any longer she would travel in the steerage, and she embarked on the Cedric.

From the moment the liner cleared Daunt's Rock she had bad weather to buck against. The winds were heavy and head against. The winds were heavy and head seas neld the ship back. As the storms continued and the ship fell further and further behind her schedule, Miss Bennett became more and more disappointed, but her friends on board, one of whom, a Mrs. Mary Jane Heath, came from the same village, kept telling her that everything would come out all right and that she would be married just the same, even if she was a day late.

Mrs. Heath shared with Miss Bennett one of the best rooms in the steerage section of the ship. There were only two bunks in it, and those who knew that Miss Bennett was coming here to be married joked about of the ship. Interested to the ship. Interested to the ship. Interested to the ship in it, and those who knew that Miss Bennett was coming here to be married joked about it as the "steerage bridal chamber."

Miss Bennett was not easily comforted, and, according to Mrs. Heath, was consoled only when she opened her portmanteau, spread out her new dresses and wedding presents and spent hours at a time apparently dreaming of the future. When the ship came into the harbor yesterday morning the young woman was all expectation. She was resigned to the fact that on account of its being a holiday she might not be able to be passed through Ellis Island until this morning, but she felt sure that, at least, she would be able to stand on deck and wave a greeting to her sweetheart.

She put on one of her new dresses and She put on one of her new dresses and was impatiently waiting for the Cedric to dock when reporters boarded the ship at Quarantine. They brought the first news of the railroad accident and one of them started with a steward to find Miss Bennett. Her name was found on the steerage list and the steward walked about shouting "Miss Bennett! Miss Bennett!"

"Here I am," came a voice from one of the rooms, and in a moment the girl, with happiness written all over her face, rushed into the passageway. When she saw only two strangers, one of whom was a steward, the smile disappeared and a look of disappointment took its place.

"You're coming here to marry Ambrose Good?" asked the reporter.

"Yes," she answered, and the smile reappeared again. "Where is he? Is he here?"

"I'm afraid we have bad news." was the here?"

"I'm afraid we have bad news," was the answer. "He isn't here. He's had an accident and can't come. You'll have to to him The girl did not seem to realize yet the meaning of the words.

"How can I get to him?" she asked. "I haven't any money. Oh! I don't know what to do."

Then she began to cry and turned to her women friends for sympathy. The reporter got Mrs. Heath off to one side and told her that Good was dead and that she must break the news to Miss Bennett. Mrs. Heath did so as tenderly as she could, and at first the young woman appeared stunned at first the young woman appeared stonned.
Then she became so hysterical that the ship's doctor had to be called in to quiet her.
By that time the ship had docked, and the story had been told to Supt. Pennell of the White Star Line pier. He went aboard before he attended to anything else and ordered that Miss Bennett be removed. better quarters and that a stewardess to better quarters and that a stewardess be sent to stay with her.

Late in the afternoon George Good, a brother of the dead man, reached the ship. He said that his brother Thomas had gone home with the body while he himself had come to this city to meet Miss Bennett. He had hoped to break the news to her, but that Miss Bennett might be present. His family would go on the young woman's bond or do anything else necessary to prevent her being detained at Ellis Island.

There was some talk yesterday that the young woman might be detained, as she had no money and no blood relatives in this country. Mr. Good, however, seemed sure that he could gain her admission to the country and said that after the funeral she would decide whether or not she would remain here.

Miss Bennett will be taken to Ellis Island this morning. Several persons who have this morning. Several persons who have become interested in her case have already become interested in her case have already taken steps to have the immigration officials extend every courtesy to her and it is probable that she will not be required to stand in line and go through the ordeal that is required for the ordinary immi-

TWO WRECK VICTIMS MAY LIVE. Number of Dead in the Connellsville Accident Fixed Definitely at 65.

CONNELLSVILLE, Pa., Dec. 25 .- There was little Christmas joy here to-day owing to the Duquesne Limited wreck on Wednesday night. Church services designed for Christmas joy were turned into memoria

Including Harry Devlin, who died to-day, the death list is sixty-five. This is ten short of the original report. Confusion in the morgues is responsible for the reporting of a few more deaths than occurred. Two victims may live to tell of their experiences. These are Jesse Hines and Edward Keffer. Hines has a hand off, but says he won't mind that. He is able to talk, but utterance is painful and few disturb him. A slight hoarseness was noticed in Keffer this afternoon, and his friends were anxious for a while, for this s the forerunner of death in scalding cases. but it passed away, and now there is more hope for his recovery. Francesco Prospero, an Italian whose friends have not yet been heard from, is the man who bears a striking resemblance to a Chinaman. The Pittsburg Chinese colony heard of this, and to-night James Lee, a member of the Chinese Union of Pittsburg, was sent here to see if the man could be identified. He knew of no missing Chinaman, but wanted to be sure that no fellow-countrymen is among the dead.

One of the unidentified is probably an ex-employee of the Westinghouse Electric

Nowman and Magazine Advertising placed by WOODBURY Ltd., General Agents, is pre-pared by The CHELTENHAM Press.

A DVERTISING prepared and placed by Woodbury Ltd. Brings Money re-

> WOODBURY Ltd., 150 Fifth Avenue

Southwest Corner Twentieth Street

& Manufacturing Co. of Pittsburg. On his clothes were found two checks, Nos. 1,806 and 1,804, marked "W. E. & M. Co." Telegrams have been sent to the company in an effort to learn his name.

There was a new local sorrow here tonight. B. Murray was the label on one of the dead. This name was secured from a testament carried in his breast pocket. To-night Harry Gilmore, a miner of Leisenring, No. 1, was looking at the dead when

"Why that's our Johnny!" The dead man had been working in Pittsburg. He had not been expected home for Christmas, but evidently came as the result of a sudden change in his plans.

POLITICAL NOTES.

Speaker Joseph G. Cannon of the House of Representatives is a Southerner by birth, and is left-handed.

Webster Davis is another Bryanite has decided to make his home in New York city. Mr. Davis was Assistant Secretary of the Interior under President McKinley and has always lived in Kansas City, Mo. It is said that Mr. Davis has found the atmosphere of Kansas City very chilly since his visit to President Kruger in the early days of the Boer war. Soon after his return he resigned from the Interior Department and made a speech at the Democratic national convention in Kansas City announcing his change from Republicanism to De-mocracy because of the refusal of President McKinley to interfere in behalf of the Boers.

This is the way the Democrats figure that they are to elect their candidate for President in 1904:

United South
New York	39
New Jersey	. 12
Illinois	27
Nevada	. 3
Total electoral votes	. 243
Sufficient to elect, 239.

John Sharp Williams of Mississippi, leader of the Democratic minority in the House of Representatives, speaking of President

"Mr. Roosevelt will be easily the nominee of the Republicans. They have gone too far to retreat, and cannot now prevent his nomination, although the conservative members of the party regret that such is the fact. Conservative business interests distrust Roosevelt. His strenuosity is so near reckessness that it would require an especially paid attorney to mark the difference. conservative element in neither the Democratic nor Republican party wants to see him nominated, because, if elected, it would be infinitely worse for the country. Roosevelt's election would mean a threat to the peace of nations, especially to the peace of the South. He is the easiest man to beat, much easier than Hanna, but in case he were elected the result would be disastrous to the Alabama has just celebrated its eightyfourth birthday as a State. It was admitted into the union of States on Dec. 14, 1819.

The British House of Lords has decided that women are debarred by their sex from becoming qualified lawyers in the United

The New York delegation, Republicans and Democrats, in the House of Representa-tives are eagerly awaiting the hour when Representative Lucius N. Littauer of the Twenty-fifth district is to carry out his declaration recently made to President Roosevelt, Attorney-General Knox and Secretary Government glove and gauntlet contracts.

This is the way a Republican of experience put it the other day: "The President of the New York Republican county committee is one who has responsibility without authority, while the chairman of the executive committee of the county committee is one who has authority without responsibility."

Senator Platt said that he didn't know Armitage Mathews, whom Gov. Odell made secretary of the New York Republican county committee. "Don't know Mathews!" ex-claimed a Republican. "Well, there are others. But there are few that do not know

Representative Frank Charles Wachter Republican, Third district of Maryland, has introduced a bill making April 14 of every year a legal holiday, to be known as "Martyrs' Day," in commemoration of the death of Abraham Lincoln.

The Osage tribe of Indians, it is declared has a balance for each member of $4,644 deposited in Uncle Sam's strong box in Washington drawing 5 per cent, interest. In addition to this, each member has 857 acres of land, about one-fifth of which is in a good state of cultivation and worth from $10 $30 an acre. The rest of their reservation. 886,000 acres, is leased for pasturage to Texas cattlemen, and the rental furnishes about $5 apiece to each Indian.

Upon a conservative estimate, each Osage is worth on an average $11,500 for every man, woman and child of the tribe.

It is asserted that ex-United States Senator John M. Thurston is the author of the phrase "Mr. Roosevelt is a man whom everybody is for, but whom nobody wants."

It is insisted that the question of admitting New Mexico, Arizona and Oklahoma will come up in the present session of Congress in probably the same way that it did in the last Congress and that an attempt will be made to pass a bill for an enabling act in-cluding all three Territories. The question is asked, Will Senator Quay of Pennsylvania again oppose the bill?

It is declared that the Illinois Republican State organization is furious over President Roosevelt's appointment of Gen. Black to be United States Civil Service Commissioner A political financial authority said the other day: "I have just returned from Russia and Japan. It would cost each nation $1,000,000 a day to go to war. There will be

DO WAT Senator Quay's colleague from Pennsylvania, Senator Hanna as chairman of the Republican national committee. Senator Quay was chairman in 1888, when Benjamin Harrison of Indiana defeated Grover Cleveland, then of New York Senator Penrose has a fortune of a million or two.

Republicans of national importance declare that great care is to be given to the selection of a candidate for Vice-President at the Republican national convention to be neld at Chicago in June next.

President Roosevelt, it is said, didn't like the speech recently delivered by Francis B. Loomis, Assistant Secretary of State, and, in osevelt style, so told Mr. Loomis when he visited the White House the other day

Anti-Bryan Democrats of national reputs tion are asking this question: "Isn't it singular that Ambassador Choate and other high representatives of the Roosevelt Administration in foreign countries have turned out to exalt a twice defeated candidate for the Presidency?"

MRS. TEDDY RICE LOCKED UP

WOMAN SALOON KEEPER HAD A SESSION WITH A COP.

One Story Is That She'd Spent Some Six Hours Drinking Wine With Him and That He Arrested Her When He Didn't Get 85 She Offered to Give Him.

A woman, who was down in the court records as Adelaide Rouse, but who was said to be Alberta Rice, the owner of a saloon in West Thirtieth street near the Haymarket, was arraigned in the Yorkville police court yesterday by Policeman Thomas Reilly of the East Fifty-first street station on a charge of intoxication.

The woman looked prosperous. wore a black and white silk dress and a Persian lamb jacket, most of her fingers were covered with rings, a gold watch hung on her breast and diamonds glittered in her ears. Some of her friends declared that she had a wad of $350 in her stocking, but if she had it she didn't intrust it to the safe in the court prison during her short stav there.

When she was arraigned, the policeman handed to the Magistrate a short affidavit, charging the woman with being intoxicated on East Fifty-fourth street at 9:10 o'clock vesterday morning.

The Magistrate turned to the woman and said:

"You are charged with being intoxicated." "Who, me? Never was more sober in my life. You look like a gentleman that wouldn't insult a lady. Don't be mean, but come 'long out 'n' I'll open a basket o' wine. Come along," the woman said, as she picked up her skirts and headed for the gate.

The Magistrate decided that she was The Magistrate decided that she was not in a condition to be arraigned just then and announced that he would hold her in $300 bail for examination to-day.

"That's a good fellow. Whatever you say goes. I'm a good fellow, too, 'n' I hold up my end," said the woman. "We'll have some more wine, f'r this 's my birthday."

One of the court policemen took her by the arm and helped her downstairs to the court prison. Some time afterward John J. Flanagan, who keeps a saloon near the court, appeared and said he wanted to give bail for the woman.

He said she had been arrested because He said she had been arrested because Policeman Reilly had been prevented from receiving $5 from her after drinking with her in several saloons for nearly six hours at a time when he was supposed to be on post. When Flanagan made this declaration to Magistrate Mayo the latter decided to recept the sees and send for the policeto reopen the case and send for the police-

Flanagan and Charles Lynch, the brother of Barney Lynch, Parks's friend who keeps a saloon at Third avenue and Fifty-ninth street, told the story of the woman's experience, which was corroborated in part by the woman. Their story was in substance as follows:

Their story was in substance as follows:
The woman, after closing her saloon on Thursday night celebrated Christmas and her birthday anniversary with some of her friends. At 3 o'clock yesterday morning she crossed town and took a Third avenue elevated train at Twenty-eighth street uptown, intending to get off at Fiftyninth street and visit her friend Barney

By mistake she got off at Fifty-third street and at the foot of the station stairs met Policeman Reilly. The two went into a nearby saloon and had a highball each. After a short time they had another high-After a short time they had another high-ball at the woman's expense, and then the woman called for champagne. They emp-tied several bottles of wine in the four hours they remained in the place, and then the man said she must go to see her friend

Lynch.

She was a little unsteady on her feet and the policeman offered to help her there. The two walked up Third avenue to Lynch's place and went in.

More wine was ordered, and at 9 o'clock

More wine was ordered, and at 9 o'clock the woman expressed a desire to go home. Charles Lynch called a cab for her and the woman pulled out a roll of bills and offered $5 to the policeman. Lynch said he would not permit her to give any money to the policeman nor to pay for the wine.

According to Lynch the policeman then said: "Why do you interfere in my business?" He then went out of the salcon, and when the woman was about to get into the cab he arrested her, although she was then outside of his precinct. Charles as then outside of his precinct Lynch went to the station and asked to see the woman, but the sergeant on duty, he says, would not allow him to see her. A telephone message was sent from back that it was the policeman's day off and he could not be found. Capt. Tighe came to court and had a talk with the Magis-trate about the case. The Magistrate was then told that the woman was Mrs. Rice. She was let go on Flanagan's bond, with orders to appear in court to-day.

Mrs. Rice didn't appear at her place West Thirtieth street until nearly mid-night last night, and when she did show up she wouldn't admit she had been in any trouble early in the day. She declared that she had been at home sick when she was in the police court. Mrs. Rice's place is a typical Tenderloin resort. She has managed it for a year or more without interference by the police. When it was first opened her husband ran it, but his methods did not suit her, and as it, but his methods did not suit her, and as the license was in her name she ejected him. She had no objection to acting as a barmaid, and it was while serving in this capacity, she says, that Lord Sholto Douglas offered to make her his wife. At the time this proposal was made Lord Douglas was in this city. Mrs. Rice said last night that he was the man who proposed to her in this city. Mrs. Rice said last night that he was the man who proposed to her.

On the ground floor of the Rice resort is a saloon with a couple of drinking tables where women sit. The floor above is a general meeting place. A few weeks ago four women decided they had a grievance against the place and agreed to wreck it.

They went there armed with clubs, but the police got wind of their intentions and arrested them. They were held as disorderly persons. Two of the four were in the place last night talking to Mrs. Rice.

GUARD ADMIRAL WHITE'S BODY Marines Escort It to Annapolis From the Brooklyn Navy Yard.

The body of the late Rear Admiral Edwin White, U. S. N., retired, who dropped dead in the navy yard, Brooklyn, on Tuesday, was taken yesterday morning from the Naval Hospital and placed aboard the Government tug Modoc. It was taken to Jersey City and shipped thence to Annapolis, where the funeral services and the burial will take place

The removal of the body of the Admiral The removal of the body of the Admiral was attended with full military and naval honors. Rear Admiral Rodgers, commandant of the vard, with his staff, Col Spicer of the Marine Corps and his staff, with five platoons of marines and the usual guard of jackies, accompanied the body to the tug. The marines and the guard went with the body to the train at Jersey City, where the marines saluted while the body was placed aboard the car, still attended by the guard, who accompanied the dead the guard, who accompanied the dead

Demands of Women Garment Workers The Wrapper Makers and Skirtmakers' unions are preparing to make demands about Jan. 15 for higher wages and recognition. Morris Lurie, the general organizer of the women's garment workers, sent out calls yesterday for meetings of the different branches of these trades between now and About five thousand women are expected to join in the demands.

Fund for Idle Iron Workers

Local No. 2 of the iron workers has received money from locals in Pittsburg and one or two other cities to aid its idle mem-bers. It will be given only to those who itching. Blind. Bleeding or Protruding Piles.

A Guaranteed Cure for Piles.

itching blind. Bleeding or Protruding Piles.
Piles will refund money if PAZO OINTMENT fails to cure you in 6 to 14 days. 50c.—Ads.

CAN'T FIND SARAH M'CARTHY. PANAMAWELCOMES OUR ENVOY Police in Breeklyn, for Charity's Sake,

The police of Brooklyn, under orders from Inspector P. H. McLaughlin, made a round-up yesterday of all the McCarthys in that borough. With the first tour of duty every captain received instructions to send a man to the home of any and all McCarthys in his precinct, and from early morning until late at night the "Clan Mo was visited by the bluecoats. Carthy' "Does Miss Sarah McCarthy live here?" was the first question asked. "Do you know Tim McCarthy of Quincy, Ill.?" was the second.

The round-up of the clan was in response The round-up of the clan was in response to the following telegram from the superintendent of St. Mary's Hospital, Quincy, Ill., received yesterday morning by Inspector McLaughlin:

"Tim McCarthy is in this hospital at the point of death. He has a sister, Miss Sarah McCarthy, in Brooklyn. Try to find her. Her brother has lost her address. Very important."

mportant. important."

Only a vague idea of the importance of what "Tim" has to say to his sister Sarah could be learned by the patrolman assigned to visit the homes of the McCarthys in each district, and in almost every case the cops were deluged with questions as to why Sarah was wanted and if there were here the protects involved.

were large property interests involved.
Every McCarthy in the borough was visited, and all the women whose given name was Sarah and who ever was known name was Sarah and who ever was known as Sarah McCarthy, that the police could find, was quesioned carefully as to her relatives and asked if "Tim McCarthy of Quincy, Ill.," was her brother. At a late hour last night word was sent to the superintendent of St. Mary's Hospital that "Sarah McCarthy, the sister of Tim McCarthy, dying at Quincy, Ill., could not be found in Brooklyn."

THIEF USED HER TEETH. Little Negress Bit the Wrist of Miss McManu and Got Her Handbag. Miss Loretta McManus of 49 North Portland avenue, Brooklyn, was robbed on the street by a young negress yesterday morning. The thief, when her victim refused let go of a handbag, fastened her teeth in Miss McManus's wrist, thus forcing her to release her hold.

Miss McManus was walking down the street, her arms full of packages, when she felt a tug at her handbag. Thinking it a small boy she did not turn, but exclaimed:

"Get out, you little thief. Run away."
Almost instantly she felt the pain teeth biting at her wrist, and dropped her bundles, as well as the bag. She screamed, and several children gave chase to a very diminutive negro woman, who was running diminutive negro woman, who was rinning down the street with the bag in her hand. Patrolman Sullivan of the Flushing avenue station captured the fugitive, who said she was Estelle Hewlett, 20 years old. of 102 Spencer street. Miss McManus identified the woman as her assailant and recovered the handbag. The prisoner was held for examination.

PATROL WAGON UPSET.

Driver Severely Injured, and the Police Say His Uniform Is Damaged $40 Worth.

While on the way to a fire with the reserves from the Adams street station about 8 o'clock last night the patrol wagon, driven by Patrolman Thomas Farrell, was struck by car 5194 of the Gates avenue line at Both will require extensive refitting. Fulton and DeKalb avenues, overturned and wrecked. The reserves were tumbled into the street. Farrell was pinned under the wagon and was taken out unconscious. He was attended by Ambulance Surgeon Smith of the Brooklyn Hospital and removed to his home.

Thomas Balf, one of the reserves, was badly cut about the hands and bruised about the body. He also was attended by the ambulance surgeon and sent to his home. The other officers were uninjured and beyond a shaking up were none the worse for their experience. The impact smashed the dashboard of the car, broke several windows and caused a panic among the passengers. the passengers.

In their report to headquarters the police of the Adams street station lay great stress upon the fact that Farrell's uniform was "damaged to the amount of $40."

TRAIN WRECK IN CHICAGO. Ten Persons Injured in a Collision-Freight Hits Passenger Cars.

CRICAGO, Dec. 25.-Ten persons were injured, five seriously and one perhaps mortally, in a crash of trains at Fifty-fourth street and the Pennsylvania Railroad early to-day. A Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago passenger train from Hamand threago passenger than from the mond was rushing along at high speed when a Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul transfer freight train swung in ahead of it. There was a crash, three cars were destroyed, the engine demolished and nearly every person on the trains hurt.

Many of the injured were able to leave the great of the wreck unaided. Frank the scene of the wreck unaided. Frank Bottwick, conductor on the Milwaukee train, is expected to die. The cause of the accident has not been discovered Twenty Passengers Hurt in a Collision Кокомо, Ind., Dec. 25.- A Toledo, St. Louis and Western passenger train was run into by a freight here to-day. Two coaches were demolished and twenty passengers burt, but none mortally. The coaches were demonstred and twenty has sengers hurt, but none mortally. The most seriously injured are Mrs. Sidney Bryant and child of Marion Mrs. Jessie Brown of Marion, John Sanders of Marion and Anna Lutz of Decatur.

Northwest Storm and Cold Wave Coming. WASHINGTON, Dec. 25 .- The forecaster of the Weather Bureau issues the following: Northwest storm warning, 10:20 P. M., from Delaware Breakwater to New York.—increasing west to northwest winds, becoming high during Saturday. The temperature will fall 25 to 30 degrees by Sunday meroing.

FRANK ENFIELD.

The Weather.

The storm from the southwest shaped its course to the northeast yesterday and moved with sufficient velocity, preceded by rain, to reach the Atlantic Coast States. The storm which was over the Lake Superior region passed out of the St. Lawrence Vailey and provided snow along the northern boundary of the United States and in Canada. Rain fell upon the country east of the Chie and Tennessee valleys. An area of high pressure was central over the eastern Rocky Mountain States forcing colder weather south and eastward into the Southwest and Centra States. It was 10 to 30 degress colder there, in the Atlantic States it was unseasonably mild. In this city rain fell throughout the day. It was warmer, with winds light east to southeast; average humidity 83 per cent.: barometer, corre te to sea lev-', a' 8 A. M., 29.66; 3 P. M. 29.56 The temperature yesterday, as recorded by 9 A. M. 41° 33° 6 P. M. 12 M. 40° 35° 9 P. M. 3 P. M. 30° 32° 12 Mid. WASHINGTON FORECAST FOR TO-DAY AND TO MORROW For easiern New York, rain or snow on the coast and show in the interior to-day, with cold wave at night; fair and cold to-morrow, west to northwest winds, becoming high.

For New England, snow in north, rain or snow in south portion to-day; cold wave at night; fair and cold to-morrow, high west to northwest winds. For Maryland, threatening and colder to-day, probably snow in north and rain in south portion cold wave at night; fair and cold to-morrow, brisk to high northwest winds. For the District of Columbia, threatening and colder to-day, probably snow, cold wave at night;

fair and cold to-morrow, brisk to high northwest

For eastern Pennsylvania, snow and colder to-day, with cold wave at night; fair and cold to-merrow, west to northwest winds, becoming high. For western New York, snow and colder to-day, with a cold wave and high northeast winds; snow to morrow, except fair in southwest portion. For New Jersey and Delaware, rain or snow and colder to-day, with cold wave at night: fair and cold to-morrow, west to northwest winds becom-

MINISTER BUCHANAN RECEIVED BY THE JUNTA.

Christmas Greeting to the New Republic From the United States-Appreciation Expressed in the Junta's Reply of Our "Elevated Spirit of Justice."

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN. From THE SUN Correspondent at Panama.
PANAMA, Dec. 25.—W. I. Buchanan, Minister of the United States to the Republic of Panama, was officially received by the Junta this afternoon and presented his credentials. He said in part:

"I have the honor to present to your Excellencies a letter of credence from the President of the United States accrediting me as Envoy. I am deeply sensible of the honor conferred upon me by the President, and am profoundly grateful for the opportunity afforded me to meet your Exceliencies, and to study the conditions and possibilities of Panama.

"The advent, future development and life of the new nation are the subjects of keen and kindly interest on the part of the American people and country, who wish for it that wide progress and advancement which peace, quiet and economy bring to all countries. In replying to Mr. Suchanan's speed the representative of the Junta said: "It is with great satisfaction that the Government receives the letter from the President of the United States accrediting you as Special Envoy, which signifies that the oldest republic on the American continent appreciates the youngest, thereby placing it on the same terms as its sister republics, and giving plain evidence of the elevated spirit of justice animating the great republic, in whose favor we confide. "The Government considers it high evidence of deference on the part of the United States that it has selected as Minister a person who, like yourself, combines personal and political accomplishments which will enable you to appreciate the conditions of the Isthmus, in the midst of whose people your presence will be the means of drawing closer together, if that be possible, the cordial relationship binding both nations."

TO CARRY TROOPS TO PANAMA? Orders at San Francisco to Get Three

Transports Ready for Service. SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 25 .- Orders were eceived at the army transport offices in this city yesterday to prepare three ships for immediate service. No one in official circles would discuss the matter, but it was learned that the ships are wanted to carry soldiers to Panama in the event of trouble with Colombia. It was learned also that trouble is expected.

The Sherman arrived from Manila short time ago, and is practically ready for sea. She has been selected as one of the three ships to go South. The Buford and the Crook have been lying in the bay for a year, and preparations have already begun to get these ships ready for sea.

THE COLOMBIAN NOTE.

Gen. Reves Presents It in Person to Secre tary Hay-Quiet in the Isthinus. WASHINGTON, Dec. 25 .- The Colombian note expressing the views of the Republic of Colombia in regard to the secussion of Panama and the establishment of the Isthmian republic, with particular ref-erence to the attitude of the United States, has been presented to Secretary Hay. The document was prepared by Gen. Reyes, the special commissioner sent to the United States by Colombia, and was presented by him to Secretary Hay in person. It has not yet been considered by the officers of the Government and will not be taken up for several days.

The following cablegram was received this morning at the Navy Department from

Rear Admiral Glass at Panama:
"Perfect quiet. No news."
The State Department has received a despatch from Consul Gudger at Panama transmitting a message from the United States consular agent at Cali, Department of Cauca, as follows

of Cauca, as follows
"Government of Colombia is disbanding volunteer soldiers at present. No indications of attack on Panama. News from Cartagena of same character."

The Department of Cauca is in close proximity to the new Republic of Panama, and for a time it was considered as favorand for a time it was considered as favorand. and for a time it was considered as favor able to a separation from Colombia and alliance with the Isthmian republic.

A despatch received at the State Department this morning from Ambassador Choate at London confirms the report from Panama that the British Government has recognized the Republic of Panama.

FAVOR RETALIATORY TARIFF. English Newspaper Vote Shows Much

Sympathy With That Plan. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN LONDON, Dec. 26 .- The Daily Mail an nounces that its canvass of the United Kingdom on the fiscal question, which was started by the paper on Sept. 30, resulted as follows: Ballots polled, 546,779; in favor of a re taliatory policy, 238,894; in favor of free trade, 166,606; and in favor of a preferential policy, 141, 279.

FRANCO-ITALIAN ARBITRATION. Treaty Signed in Paris Identical With the Anglo-French Document.

Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN Paris, Dec. 25 .- M. Delcassé, Minister of Foreign Affairs, and Count Tornielli-Brusati di Vergano, the Italian Ambassador. to-day signed a Franco-Italian arbitration treaty that is identical with the treaty re cently signed by England and France.

LORENZ PATIENT GIVES A PARTY. Couldn't Walk Before the Vienna Doctor

Operated on Her. BALTIMORE, Dec. 25 .- May Lehman, the six-vear-old daughter of Turnkey John Lehman of the North Eastern District, entertained a number of her friends this afternoon at the Lehman home, 1104 North Bond street. May Lehman is one of the for congenital hip disease last December when he was in Baltimore.

Since then she has been under the care of Dr. William S. Baer, the orthopedic surgeon at the Johns Hopkins medical school, and has been pronounced cured by Dr. Baer and Dr. Halstead of the same institution.

OBITUARY.

institution.

William Coggswell, the portrait painter, died William Coggswell, the portrait painter, died at the home of his daughter, in South Pasadena, Cal., on Thursday Mr. Coggswell was run down by a street car in San Francisco and never fully recovered from the shock. Death is attributed to acute Bright's disease. Prof. William G. Coggswell, a son of the artist, is now in New York. Mr. Coggswell was a California pioneer, having gone there in 1848 with the first goldseekers. Among his well known canvases are a life size group of Gen. U. S. Grant and his family, a portrait of Abraham Lincoln, which is hung in the Green room at the White House, and the Ilinoln and McKinley portraits in the State Capitol at Sacramento.

READACHE FROM COLDS. Lazative Bromo Quinine removes the causa. To get the genuine, call for the full name. 25c.—Ass.

Waltham Watches

The name is a guarantee.

"The Perfected American Watch," an illustrated book of interesting information about watches, will be sent free upon request.

> American Waltham Watch Company, Waltham, Mass.

WOMAN'S MYSTERIOUS DEATH. Allentown, Pa., Police Trying to Find O Whether Mrs. Leldy Was Murdered.

ALLENTOWN, Pa., Dec. 25 .- The police are trying to solve the mystery of the death of Mrs. Agnes Minerva Leidy, 25 years old, who died yesterday at the house of William Clader, this city. The Leidy woman had been ill for several days at the Clader house, where she was employed as nurse for Mrs.

where she was employed as nurse for such Clader, who is sick.

William J. Kunkle, a former pol ceman, is being held on suspicion. He admits that the woman died in his arms, and that he helped to prepare the body for burial. He refuses to say more. The police say that the body was sent to a relative at Bethlehem, six miles away, after dark and with more than ordinary secrecy, and that this gives the case a suspicious aspect. The gives the case a suspicious aspect. The Claders declare that the woman had been ill since last Saturday, and that her death was due to eating three dozen fresh Christmas cakes. They say that several people, including Kunkle, were present when her death several people.

death occurred.

The police have had the body sent back to Allentown, and have found wounds in the temple and on the nose and bruises on the body. The Claders say these were due to a fall. Coroner Scheirer has ordered an to a fall. Coroner Scheirer has ordered an autopsy to be made.

Late to-night Chief Eastman placed Mrs. Clader and her brother, Frank Tobias, who live in the house where the woman died, under arrest. This action was taken at the order of Coroner Scheirer. The latter made the post mortem examination, assisted by Dr. A. J. Yost, but declines to make public the result. He stated, however, that the woman's skull was not fractured and the claim that she died from eating too many cakes had been shattered by the autopsy. He refused to say whether there was any concussion of the brain.

NO TRAIN HOLD-UP ATTEMPTED. Joke of a Brakeman on the New Haven

Road Led to a Startling Tale. NEW HAVEN, Dec. 25 .- The true story of the alleged attempt at holding up the express on the Hartford division of the New Haven Railroad on last Wednesday at 3 o'clock in the morning, near the peat works, just north of Meriden, came out to-day. The original story had it that a man swung a red lantern in front of the locomotive, but the engineer ignored the warning, threw wide open the throttle and as the engine dashed by the spot ban-and as the engine dashed by the spot bandits darted out from the bushes.

The four Adams express cars that formed part of the train and which were heavily loaded with valuable Christmas goods, it was said, were thus saved from train robbers.

It was learned by the railroad officials that the train was fifteen minutes late when it reached Meriden. A brakeman ran around to the gate tender to borrow some tobacco and in answer to the question why the train was late said:

"Oh, a couple of men held us up at the peat works." peat works."

Then the gate tender asked the engineer if it was true, and the engineer to keep up the joke said it was. When the train pulled out the police were informed, and then the road sent a detective to Meriden.

How Much Whiskey for a Dime? Thomas McGreill, a saloonkeeper, of 79 Columbia street, Brooklyn, became involved in a wrangle with his next door neighbor, Timothy Shea, yesterday morning over the quantity of whiskey that the average purchaser should be entitled to for 10 cents.

McGreill is in the Long Island College Hospital suffering from two stab wounds in his abdomen, and Shea is in jail awaiting the result of his injuries.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE. MINIATURE ALMANAC—THIS DAT.
Sun rises......7:22|Sun sets....4:36|Moon sets...
HIGH WATER—THIS DAT. Sandy Hook .11:47 Gov. I'd12:19 Hell Gate ... 2:12

Arrived-FRIDAT, Dec. 25 Arrived—FRIDAT. Dec. 24.

Ss Cedric, Liverpool, Dec. 16.

Ss Alberta, Glasgow, Dec. 12.

Ss Alberta, Glasgow, Dec. 12.

Ss Exter City, Swansea, Dec. 5.

Ss Navigator, Maracalbo, Dec. 15.

Ss Syacuse, Rio Jametro, Dec. 15.

Ss Mokta, Pilieva Island, Dec. 12.

Ss El Norte, Galveston, Dec. 19.

Ss Aransas, New Orleans, Dec. 18.

Ss Comanche, Jacksonville, Dec. 22.

Ss Hamilton, Norfolk, Dec. 24.

Schespeake, Baltimore, Dec. 24.

Ship Jolanda, Caleta Buena, Sept. 1.

ARRIVED OUT Ss. Cevic, from New York at Liverpool. Ss. Kansas City, from New York at Bristol.

OUTGOING STEAMSHIPS.

St Paul Southampton. Lucania. Liverpool. Zeeland, Antwerp Minneapolis. London. Belgravia. Hamburg. Pretoria. Bermuda. Philadelphia. Curacoa. orro Castle, Havana Moracas, Havaha El Dorado, New Orleans, Arapahoe, Charleston El Rio, Galveston San Marcos, Brunswick. Concho, Galveston. Hamilton, Norfolk. City of Memphis, Savan. Sall Monday, Dec. 28.

Jefferson, Norfolk City of Macon, Savannah. INCOMING STRANSPIPS. Arkansas.
Antillan
Prinz Oskar.
Consuelo.
Armstrong.
Klowa. Hull.
Cherbourg.
Jacksonville.
St. Michaels.
Gibraltar
Savannah
Bremen
Vera Cruz. Martello... City of Augusta.

The Life Given Us Is Short

halmette

City of Washington

Due Tuesday, Dec. 29.

Liverpool. Galveston Galveston Colon.

Do not risk it by letting a cough or cold get seated, but use Hale's Honey of Horeho and Tar early, and there can be no dangerous results, for it cures quickly. Sold by druggists, 25., 50c., $1 a bottle.

Pike's Toothache Drops Cure in One Minute

RIOT OVER MISSING CHILDREN.

HOMES OF HUNS INVADED AND MEN BEATEN.

Two Children Locked Out by a Msunderstanding Ge to a Neighbor's for the Night-Parents and Friends Storm Houses of Foreigners and Wreck Them.

INDIANAPOLIS, Dec. 25 .- Rosalind, aged 13, and Mary, aged 5, daughters of William Land, a farmer living near the city limits. attended a Christmas entertainment at Haughville last night. The father failed to meet them when the entertainment closed and the two children went home. but finding the house dark they went on to another house, where they spent the night. Mr. Land did not find his children at home and he returned to Haughville and began a search for them. It was continued through the night.

Early this morning there was a report that the girls had been seen in company with some foreigners. This aroused the people to frenzy, and many rumors gained circulation. A crowd of men and women, terribly excited over the possibilities of the case, rushed through the streets toward the Hungarian quarter Houses were entered in the search for the missing children, furniture was destroyed and the foreigners were openly accused of having kidnapped the missing girls. Failure to find any trace of them added to the excitement, and 300 men and women were soon around the Hungarian houses. Two Hungarians offered resistance and the vengeance of the mob was swift and terrible. Stanislaus Goecki and George Murach disputed the right of the mob to enter their homes and search them. The men were beaten into insensibility. The police were powerless to stay the ven-geance of the father and his neighbors. Clubs, stones, anything the mob could lay its hands upon, were the weapons used in assaulting the men.

The two men were rescued by the police and taken to an old shack, but the mob broke the door down and again assaulted them. Then they turned upon the houses of the foreigners and with clubs and stones broke out windows and demolished furniture. In terror the Hungarians abandoned their houses and fled. While the excitement was increasing at a rapid rate and the mob was getting more and more desperate, word was received that the two children were safe, but there were still many mutterings against the foreigners. Several arrests were made but no evidence save that those arrested were present at the rioting could be obtained against them.

CAR BOWLS OVER A COUPLE.

Farmer Daly and His Wife Have Narrow Hscapes in New York. Walter Daly, a middle aged farmer of Roxbury Station, Conn., and his , wife Mary were on their way to visit friends at Paterson, N. J., last night when they were knocked down by a southbound Lexington avenue car at Fourth avenue and

The fender struck them and knocked them off the tracks. When Daly was helped to his feet he looked at the impression of the car wheel on his hand and said to the "You're an expert at running a car or you'd have cut my hand off. You stopped

Daly was bruised a bit and his wife had just in time.

a slight cut over the left eye. After they were fixed up by an ambulance surgeon they went on to Paterson.

DEATH VERDICT ON XMAS. Man Convicted of Murder Says He Committed Crime to Save Sweetheart. PITTEBURG. Dec. 25 .- "This Christmas gift is my life," said Dusan Molie when his jury brought in a verdict of murdy in the first degree this morning. "I kills: Policeman Kelley in salf-defence and to save my sweetheart, and the evidence was so clear that I expected an acquittal. Now on Christmas morning, the jury has handed down my death notice."

Molic shot Policeman Kelley while the latter was trying to arrest him. The jur

When the hair is gray or faded it and keeps the scalp clean and healthy prevents Dandruff and hair falling

DIABETIC BREADS and other allow able and useful foods are served daily by us HEALTH FOOD CO., 61 Fifth Av.

DIED

MATO.—At the residence of her father, W. W. Sherman, 24 East 55th st., Thursday, Dec. 24, 1808, Edith, wife of George Temple Mayo. Funeral services at the Church of the Incamation, Madison av. and 55th st., Saturday, at 1939 o'clock A. M. Kindly omit flowers.

RANDOL.—On Wednesday morning, Dec. 23, 1903 James Butterworth Randol, in his 68th year Funeral services on Saturday at 12 o'clock at his late residence, 17 West 73d st. Interment please copy. SCHROEDER.—On Friday evening, Dec. 25, 1903, at 12 West 9th st., Almée Raymond, wife of Dr. Henry Harmes Schroeder, and youngest daugn-ter of the late Henry J. Raymond SYMES.—At Rockville, Conn., Wodnesday, Dec. 23. 1963, George Sykes, in his 63d year. Puneral services at Rockville, Saturday, 26th lust., at 1:30 P. M.

CEMETERIES.

The Great Pinelawa Cometery, Magnificent Mausoleum above ground. Office, 25 Broad St.

PERSONALS. TOUR FUTURE REVEALED. — withen horoscope with prospects in so life. $1.00. Send birth date and loci Trial reading for acception, 18c. Professor TON. © Congress av., Providence. Rhod